Department. Real Estate, Planning and Construction Department

Adv. Toledo is a partner in the Real Estate, Planning and Construction Department who specializes in municipal tax.

Adv. Toledo provides legal counsel to public and private entities, developers, companies and some of Israel's largest infrastructure entities with regard to municipal tax, including construction fees, development levies, property tax and betterment levies.

Adv. Toledo advises clients regarding complex proceedings related to payment demands from local authorities, representing clients before the authorities and planning institutions as well as courts.

Over the years, Adv. Toledo represented dozens of municipalities in the municipal tax field, providing ongoing counsel and handling demands for increasing property tax payments and development levies addressed to multiple assesses and major corporations. In addition, Adv. Toledo served as outside legal counsel to municipalities and statutory corporations. She also accumulated long years of experience in representing private clients, real estate companies, industrial companies, commercial entities and others vis-à-vis the collecting authorities.

Adv. Toledo represents clients before courts and appellate tribunals in relevant legal proceedings, including class actions and administrative claims. In addition, Adv. Toledo represents clients in civil and administrative proceedings before all courts, including Magistrate Courts, District Courts, Administrative Courts and the Supreme Court.
